

UKCGG-National Cancer Genetics MDT meeting: 21st May 2026

Peutz-Jeghers Syndrome or Laugier-Hunziker Syndrome? Spotting the Difference - lead by North West Thames

Meeting contact: bianca.desouza1@nhs.net

Thank you to everyone who attended this session. Below is a summary of the presented cases and relevant publications and resources to refer to.

Presented Cases

Case 1	Dermatology case - Laugier Hunziker syndrome	Presented by: Dr Mark Eisner Newcastle Biomedical Research Centre mark.eisner@newcastle.ac.uk
	Actions/Outcome:
Case 2	Dermatology case - Laugier Hunziker syndrome	Dr Mark Eisner Newcastle Biomedical Research Centre mark.eisner@newcastle.ac.uk
	Actions/Outcome:
Case 3	Peutz-Jeghers Syndrome with deletion	Presented by: Dr Edward Steel NWTRGS Edward.steel@nhs.net
	Actions/Outcome:

Expert Speaker Talk

Dr Andrew Latchford

Consultant Gastroenterologist, Director: Polyposis Registry, Co-Director: St Mark's Centre for Familial Intestinal Cancer

Peutz-Jeghers Syndrome:

- Clinical features, including patterns of skin pigmentation

- Current management
- Investigation of suspected cases, including the importance of histological polyp review

Professor Sue Clark,

Consultant Colorectal Surgeon, St Mark's Hospital
Professor of Practice (Colorectal Surgery)
Department of Surgery and Cancer
Imperial College, London

Update on the Rare disease collaborative network (RDCN) for hereditary gastrointestinal polyposis syndromes

Next meeting details

Date	Thursday July 16th 2026
Time	12:30 pm-1:45 pm
Theme	TBC
Leading centre	Guy's and St Thomas'
Contact for cases	Adam Shaw and Vishakha Tripathi

Please send any questions or ideas for future meetings to UKCGGNationalMDT@icr.ac.uk